

Dustin Teuton

San Diego, CA 92103

scuderbuket@yahoo.com - (619) 756-1557

A full-time position utilizing leadership and communication skills in a high-paced environment. Exceptional professionalism, unrelenting perseverance and a unique ability to manage multi-disciplinary projects and navigate complex challenges.

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

WORK EXPERIENCE

Boat and special equipment operator/Technician

MAR Incorporated - San Diego, CA - 2016-07 - Present

Technician and operator of unmanned systems with capabilities in a intended real-world operating environment, in support of operational tasking. Test and evaluation of unmanned systems, including gathering, recording, analyzing and reporting performance data. developing writing documents on programmatic subjects to include UUV tactics and doctrine, operations, deployment guides, standard operating procedures. Demonstrates experience authoring key programmatic and tactical documents, and the ability to conceptualize, draft, develop, write and employ these documents.

Unmanned underwater systems technician

Ceteris systems - San Diego, CA - 2016-02 - Present

- Primary duties involve charging and discharging battery cells of the Mk30 Mod 1 Unmanned undersea system. Provide maintenance to all aspects of the Mk30 Mod1 UUV and make operational for the U.S. Navy Anti Submarine Warfare (ASW) training group.
- The MK 30 Mod 1 target contains equipment that responds to active sonar and torpedo interrogation and provides radiated noise for passive sonar tracking and acoustic homing torpedoes. A submarine-like magnetic anomaly signature is also provided for use by ASW aircraft equipped with magnetic anomaly detection equipment.

MK18 MOD2 Unmanned Underwater Vehicle (UUV) operator

Exelis - San Diego, CA - 2013-03 - 2014-05

and over 100 direct action missions out of Bahrain Kingdom. Unmanned Underwater Vehicle's are pre-programmed and designed to scan waters for targets or threats while offering sailors faster post-mission analysis using the Navy's Mine Warfare and Environmental Decision Library (MEDAL) and Common Operating Interface Navy (COIN) systems.

- 4 year experience Unmanned Systems operational experience with MK 18 Family of Systems.
- 6 months deployed as UUV operator in support of United States Navy (USN) Fifth Fleet Operations, Bahrain.
- 1 year of experience conducting test and evaluating unmanned systems, including gathering, recording, analyzing performance data.
- 1 years experience as qualified operator of the MK-18 Family of Systems advanced sensors, both ATLAS and SSAM 1&2 unmanned systems.
- 4 Months Subject Matter Expert (SME) in direct support of U.S. Navy 5th fleet operations.

- Tasked with the safe transfer of classified material on board U.S. naval ships to shore facilities.
 - Trained and qualified over 30 U.S. personnel in operations, maintenance and safety while on the water by providing tactical and technical guidance.
 - 11-meter RHIB operations from shore installations and U.S. Naval ships.
- 6 years using Global positioning system (GPS).

diver and MMS handler

United States Navy - San Diego, CA - 2007-08 - 2013-03

- Master at Arms (MA) base security Pensacola FL. Conducted Daily operations overlooking restricted and awaiting trial sailor and soldiers. Escorted low and high security prisoners to and from court hearings.
- Marine Mammal Handler for Navy Explosive Ordinance Disposal Unit One San Diego, CA. Trained Bottle Nose Dolphins for Very Shallow Water (VSW) mine hunting and anti-combat diver operations. At-sea operations from U.S. Naval ships using Combat Rubber Raiding Craft (CRRCS). Conducted over 100 Very Shallow Water and Shallow Water (VSW/SW) dives supporting MCM (mine counter measure) missions. 20 successful underwater demolitions (UNDET). Highly proficient in minefield discipline, global positioning systems, COIN, METAL, and mission briefing. Leading force of training requirements per Enlisted Warfare Specialist designator, Small Craft Coxswain, Marine Mammal Handler, and COIN NMS tracking software. Supervised and instructed personnel on small boat coxswain navigation techniques, and marine mammal systems mine countermeasure diving operations. Participated in five EODMU-1 VSW Full Mission exercises, assisting UUV operations as a diver and MMS handler.
- One year deployment to Guantanamo Bay Cuba. Conducted detainee operations guarding over 120 low and high valued detainees. Developed security plans and emergency procedures for personnel coming onto and off grounds. Strictly managed inventory of all gear and secret computing systems on a daily basis. Conducted daily escort operations in support of myriad legal, medical and intelligence requirements.

EDUCATION

Associates in Business

University of Phoenix
2014-08 - Present

law

Naval Diving and Salvage Training Center - Panama City, FL

License in U.S. Navy

PENN State