1.0 Purpose / Summary:

Remove the sticker from the depth sensor assembly as it is no longer required, and the current sticker would not show up well on the black housing.

3.0 Detail:

The sticker was previously used to identify pressure sensors with a new revision PCB.

All new sensors for the past 2 years have used the PCB. Additionally the latest pressure sensors are easily distinguishable in black anodized housings.

The sticker was never formally added to the bom or work instructions.

This ECO serves as notice that the sticker will no longer be applied to the pressure sensor assembly.
