

The two plots are presenting the same data, the upper plot is a contour map of fluorescence over the surface, the lower plot is a 3-D plot with fluorescence plotted on the Z axis.

The fluorescent stick is 14cm x 0.5cm, but this scan only covers part of it.

