

From: Alana Sherman <alana@mbari.org>
Subject: broken strobe
Date: August 24, 2010 1:48:45 PM PDT
To: Paul McGill <mcgill@mbari.org>
Cc: Ken Smith <ksmith@mbari.org>, Alana Sherman <alana@mbari.org>

the broken strobe has 2 1600 uF caps in parallel. So that is 400 W-sec. This was the near field one. I think that both strobes are probably 400 W-sec. The other was the far field one, which we would notice if it was only 200 W-sec (it would be much darker) and I am pretty sure it is not 800 W-sec.