

Git Notes

git clone link — clone repo git status — views status git remote -v — views remotes git remote add [upstream] — adds another remote called upstream git branch — views branches (*branch is current branch) git branch [name_of_branch] — creates new branch git branch -d [name_of_branch] — deletes branch git checkout [name_of_branch] — switches into branch git add — adds file to be tracked by git git commit — commits git commit [filename] -m "Message" — commits filename with message git push [remote] [your_branch] — pushes your commit up to server git fetch [remote] — pulls updates from GitHub repo (remote) (origin for this project) git merge — merges what you just fetched with current branch (ideally your master) git pull — fetches and merges in one step git clone [url] --branch [branch name]